

APRIL 15th 2005
14.30 – 19.00

Villa Gandolfi Pallavicini - Via Martelli 22/24 (Bologna)

who owns the ideas ?

A joint Collegio Superiore- Institute of Advanced Study workshop

14:30 opening remarks and welcome address

Dario Braga (Director of the Collegio Superiore)

Alessandro Freddi (Director of the Istituto di Studi Avanzati)

14:40-15:00

Joel Bernstein (visiting ISA professor - Ben Gurion University of the Negev, Beer Sheva, Israel, chemistry) "Polymorphs and Patents"

15:00-15:20

Roberto Scazzieri (Dipartimento di Scienze Economiche, University of Bologna, Economics) "Paradoxes of intellectual property: an economist's view"

15:20-15:40

Bruno Riccò (Rector's Delegate for Technology Transfer, DEIS, University of Bologna, Engineering) "Inventions and Intellectual Property: Who owns the ideas?"

15:40- 16:00

Ronald Brandt (visiting ISA professor, University of Pittsburgh, School of Law) - "Who decides who owns the rights: jurisdiction to hear intellectual property right disputes between private parties"

16:00- 16:20

Bruno Quarta (Dir. Area della Ricerca - University of Bologna) - "The up and down ways of the ideas" (the long route of inventions from the morning coffee to the product, taking into account ownership creation and transfer, financial necessity,...."

16:20-16:40

Paolo Leonardi (Dipartimento di Discipline della Comunicazione, University of Bologna, Philosophy) "Publicity of Ideas"

16:40-17.00 break

17:00-18:00 Round Table Discussion "who owns the ideas?"

18:00-19:00 Concluding remarks by the speakers

The workshop will see the participations of senior students of the Collegio Superiore