

Semigroups for flows in networks

Rainer Nagel, Tübingen

We report on a research project in which we apply semigroup methods to transport processes on graphs. The combination of graph and spectral theoretical methods leads to well posedness as well as qualitative properties of the flow. The results are obtained in cooperation with K. Engel, M. Kramar and E. Sikolya.