Stability results for Maxwell's equations with a delay term in the boundary or internal feedbacks

We investigate the effect of time delay in boundary or internal stabilization of Maxwell's equations in bounded and smooth domains of $\mathbf{R}^3$. Under suitable assumptions, we will give exponential stability results by using appropriate observability estimates. Moreover, we will present some instability examples.

These results are obtained in collaboration with S. Nicaise.