

AN OVERVIEW OF THE MUMFORD-SHAH MODEL

NICOLA FUSCO

Università di Napoli

The Mumford-Shah model is probably the best known variational model for image segmentation. It is also one for which the mathematical analysis has been particularly rich. We shall describe the main features of this model, the state of the art of mathematical research and some open problems.