

Open Mind (www.openmind-tech.com), a world leader in the production of software for automation of manufacturing, is looking for a

CAD/CAM Software Engineer

Place of work: Pesaro or Bologna, Italy

Characteristics of the job:

- Analysis of product specifications by dealing with Product Marketing and customers
- CAD/CAM software development and maintenance
- Work closely with other developers and follow the development cycle using the Agile methodology process
- Create automated tests aimed at validating software development

Requirements:

- Degree in Mathematics, Computer Science or Engineering.
- Up-to-date programming skills, with a greater emphasis on programming languages such as C++ and C# and object-oriented design techniques.
- Mathematical skills
- Be innovation-oriented
- Ability to work in teams and to expand their knowledge
- Ability to collaborate with international teams in English
- Ability to plan your work and to respect times and results.
- Availability to travel
- Good knowledge of written and spoken English
- Knowledge of CAD and CAM issues is welcome
- Knowledge of three-dimensional graphics is welcome

It offers:

- Permanent contract
- Possibility of working remotely for 50% of the time
- Compensation and advances commensurate with the results achieved
- Production bonus linked to the achievement of team goals
- Dynamic and international work environment